L. Boyce, were drowned this morning, at 10 o'clock, in Mill creek, a small stream flowing through Mt. Vernon. The hard rain of last night had so swoolen the stream that it was almost a torrent. The children were playing on the bank of the creek and, it is supposed, the Alles boy fell in, dragging with him the Boyce boy. Hearing the screams of the children. Mrs. Alles rushed to the creek in the hope of saving them, and plunged in. The little girl, in her excitement, jumped in after her mother. All were drowned before aid could reach them, and the swift current carried all their bodies into the Ohio river, into which the creek empties. The body of young Alles was recovered about three-quarters of an hour after the drowning at the mouth of the creek, but it is supposed the others were taken into the river.

ARMSTRONG'S DEFALCATION.

Still the Subject of Talk at Tipton-List of a Part of the Worthless Paper.

Special to the Indiapapolis Journal. TIPTON, Ind., July 15,-The general tople of conversation is the defalcation of County Treasurer Armstrong and the incarceration of his son Calvin in the county jail. Excitement at times runs high. County Treasurer Armstrong has executed a mortgage to his bondsmen on all his property, but this amounts only to $8,000. There was a demand on young Armstrong to open the safe at the treasurer's office, which he refused to do. Mont, a younger son, went to St. Louis to attend the races. Tuesday, and was to arrive home yesterday evening, but a runner was sent South to Atlanta to meet him, and he left the train at that point, and did not reach here. It is supposed that he is now somewhere in Tennessee, where he has a worthless brother, who is a barber, and who left here for striking his uncle on the head with a weight, fracturing his skull, from which he died later on.

Following is a list of worthless notes, obtained from the bondsmen: J. A. Armstrong to Calvin A. Arm-John B. Malone to Calvin A. Arm-would come, but not at this early date.

Calvin Armstrong's first experience at betting was at the last election, when he put up $2,200 of the people's money, and Democracy being successful be won. He next entered the race track and visited gambling houses in Louisville, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago, where he lost heavily, rained his father, brought disgrace to his aged mother, and rendered several of his bondsmen penniless. When asked this afternoon by one of his bondsmen why he loaned so much money to worthless parties without sureties, he remarked that they were money makers, and that the notes would all be paid in full by the time the office would be turned over to the new treasurer, George W. Myerly, Aug. 17, 1893.

Raiph Drake Gives Bond.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., July 15 .- The friends and relatives of Ralph Drake, who on the first day of June, in a lodging house here, fired three balls into the brain of Mrs. Ida Ward, whom had some years before persuaded to desert her husband and elegant home for bim and then fired a ball into his own head, which failed to produce death, appeared before Judge Hord and gave a ten-thousand-dollar bond for his appearance at the next term of court to answer the charge of murder. Since Drake has been confined in jail his mind at times has become clear, and it was thought by his attending physician that if he was placed in an asylum he might again regain his reason, and for this purpose he was some days ago adjudged of unsound mind and an order issued to transfer him to the Central Hospital for the Insane at Indianapolis. It was for this purpose that he was released from jail here torelatives. Drake has said, on one or two occasions since his confinement in the jail, that he and the Ward woman, at the close of a three days' debauch, had agreed to die together, and that the only objection en-tered by Mrs. Ward to being shot was that he would shoot her and then not kill him-

A RECTOR'S PARTING SHOT.

Rev. H. A. Adams Joins the Catholics and Washington Park by Half a Length. Denounces the Episcopal Church.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 15 .- Rev. Henry A. Adams, formerly rector of St. Paul's Episcopai Church, this city, and later of the Church of the Redgemer, New York, has joined the Roman Catholic Church. In a letter setting forth the reasons for his action, he says, among other things: "Not only in her failure to teach, and by the inconsistencies of her whole theory, did the Episcopal Church grow more and more a cause of shameful sorrow to me, but muc h more keeply so when I beheld, after ten years of bitterest experience and knowledge of her ways, the miserable fiasco of her parochial and institutional existence. Without a parallel in history the parish system of the Protestant Episcopal Church stands at this time the most stupendous and ridiculous monstrosity in Christen-dom. With a rector called by a vestry made up of the rich men of the place-a rector intimidated, harassed, made by his very tenure impotent, the hired mouthpiece of this vestry of rich men, sometimes immoral, often ignorant, usually officious, always in the way. Here to teach these rich masters of his what they already know and like. He is to conduct service as they direct. He is to tolerate and indorse any abomination which may have been (and usually is) established in the parish. He is to belie himself, his message, God's very word, for peace sake. And they are the 'successful' rectors (poor, dumb slaves), who have been able to keep everybody happy and questions and ideas of a disturbing nature in the dark.

"Again, in her conditions to the poor, her speech of equivocating coquetry towards the sects, in her judicial system, in her nopolicy, in her atter lack of discipline, coherence, espirit du corps, in her vacillation, failure, pretensions—she crushes out of earnest men their faith in her as the divinely planned and ruled. She breaks the hearts of her most loyal sons. She either casts them forth, or ruins them as men and priests by forcing them into untrue, unfrank, unprincipled and helpless ac cence in the less than right."

SHOT AND ROBBED.

An Arkansas Sheriff Severely Wounded and $11,000 Taken from Him.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 15 .- Sheriff W. E. Warner, of Chittenden county, Arkansas, was shot and robbed of over $11,000 last night. He received $11,000 in currency, which he placed in a traveling bag, and boarded the Little Rock & Memphis train at 8 o'clock last night for Little Rock. As the train slowed up at the big bridge the sheriff was knocked from the rear platform of the Pullman sleeping car by two men. He was stunned by the but regained his feet and fired on his assailants, but a bullet from one of the robbers pierced left shoulder and arm and disabled him. While one of the bandits kept up a steady fire in front, the other crept up behind the wounded officer and. with a powerful blow with a bludgeon, on the head, felled him to the ground. The robbers then grabbed the bay of money and escaped in the darkness. The sheriff lay by the side of the railroad track until 2 o'clock this morning, when he was found by a track walker and the alarm was given. A diligent search has been made for the robbers, but so far the detectives have been unable to find a clew. Sheriff Warner is considered out of danger.

THE COLUMBUS HANDICAP.

Rudolph Wins the Big Stakes by Halfa Leng -Yo Tambien Second, Ray S. Third. CHICAGO, July 15.—Rudolph won the money and Yo Tambien the glory in today's Columbus handicap, the greatest race ever run in the West. Conceding seventeen pounds to the winner, the Kendall stables mare was but a half length behind when the finishing line had been passed, and her handling by Jordan was not the best. A length and a half away came another Western horse, Ray S., who was only a half length in front of Loudon. lilume was fifth. Then followed the two Eastern horses. Diablo and Lamplighter. Michael came next, and Morello, carrying the public's money and an injured jockey, and limping from his own hurts. What figure the great Futurity winner might have out but for an accident at the post will never be known. In some way the colt stumbled in a false start and fell, receiving injuries and laming the jockey so that he asked Pettingill to excuse him, but this was refused. Morello's shoulder was bruised and a big lump was made on

A threatening forenoon made way for an afternoon of sunshine and heat, and Washington Park contained a crowd of eighteen thousand when the big race was called, The track was probably a second slow, nevertheless the world's record for a mile and three-sixteenths was equaled in the Columbus handicap. First-class fields started in every race, which accounts for the good time made. A half hour's delay at the post in the first race provoked Pettingil into sending them away with Una Colorado standing still. Pop Gray, the favorite, was off in front and won with ease. Minnie Cee won the second event in the side of his head. After the race he

a fighting finish. At the outset, in the betting for the handicap, Morello was marked 5 to 2 on most of the books, with 3 on one or two boards. A steady flow of money wore the price down until it was 8 to 5 at the post. The Kendall stable pair, Yo Tambien and Maid Marian, and Rudolph were second favorites at all times, going to the post at Lampligater advanced from 5 to 7; Diablo, the Brooklyn handicap winner, was 8, and Loudon and Santa Anna were 10. Lamplighter was given a round of cheers when they passed the stand, but the most applause was lavished upon Morello. Yo l'ambien and Maid Mariau did not parade.

There was a twenty minutes' delay at the post. Taral spoiled one good start, but Morello fell and the talent felt grateful to Diablo's rider. Finally they were sent away to one of the prettiest starts ever seen in a race, being in almost perfect alignment and all moving. The crowd broke out into a cheer, which did not die away until long after the race was over. As they scurried past the stand Maid Marian, Rudolph, Wildwood and Highland were almost head and head, a length in front of Ida Pickwick and Morello, at whose shoulders raced Michael and Loudon. The rest were in a bunch, except Poet Scout, who was trailing. The plan of the Kendall stable was now made apparent. Maid Marian moved out of the bunch and at the quarter was leading. But Miller, on the favorite, set out to thwart it. He took Morello forward began a fight with the maid for the lead, but did not catch up. Rudolph was running easily in third place. Highland, Ida Pickwick and Yo Tambien were next in order, with Lamplighter in the middle of the bunch. Maid Marian had increased her lead at the haif at least two lengths, and many shouted, "They will never catch her." but the little filly here nearly run her race. At the three-quarter pole she was leading Morello by only a head. At the latter's hips was Rudolph. still galloping without much apparent exertion. Then followed Yo Tambein, Wildwood, Loudon, Highland, Michael, Santa Anna, Diablo, Huron, Lamplighter, Ray S., Pickwick, Illume and Poet Scout, in the order named. The first four were separated from the rest by daylight, but it was, all in all, a very compact banch. Turning into the stretch Maid Marian gave up the fight and dropped back into oblivion. Morello led but only for an instant. He made a side turn, and Rudolph and Yo Tambien at once took advantage of it, the order in the stretch being Rudolph, Yo Tambien and Morello, only necks apart, followed by Ray S., who had made a wonderful gain. Then came Lamplighter and Diablo. Simms and Taral were working hard on the Eastern pair, but soon saw it was a hopeless task. Once well straightened out Morello again moved in front, and at the eighth pole looked like a winner, the crowd cheering madly, but he had been exerted to the utmost. Irving now for the first time called on Rudolph, and the Ætna stable horse immediately went into a commanding lead. Ray S., running with a great show of speed next to the inner rail, was Rudolph's only dangerous competitor, for Yo Tambien had been kept back for a final effort, and Lamplighter and Diablo, despite the efforts of their jockeys, were losing ground. The crowd anticipated the result and wildly shouted "Rudolph, Rudolph!" But with long, steady strides a chestnut mare came galloping along in the outside, slowly and surely cutting down the leader's advantage. It was Yo Tambien. Irving saw the dauger, and to his cool head and hard work may be attributed Rudolph's victory. Rudolph just won by a half length, with Yo Tambien nearly two lengths before Ray S. London came fast at the finish, and got fourth position. Aside from his injuries Morello was not ridden with good judgment. to-day, defeating Amherst by a score of 9 to 0. The cup was presented to the win- yesterday.

A story published in the New York Times ning team by Mayor Harrison. The cause of Amherst's downfail was the drop taken by her boy pitcher, Colby. Up to the sixth inning it looked all Amberst, but in that fatal inning Colby gave five men their bases on balls, the team went all to pieces, and in the debris Yale managed to make nine runs. That settled it, for Amherst was unable to his Carter.

INCLINED TO WORK IN SECRET.

Amounts of Silver Parchased and Prices Paid May Not Be Made Public. WASHINGTON, July 15 .- Yesterday's offers of silver were not made public, either as to the amounts offered or prices. This morting the Mint Bureau announced the purchase of 100,000 onnces of yesterday's offers at 7212 cents per ounce, which is the figure of the treasury counter offer. The total amount of silver purchased up to date for July 18 858,000 onnces.

It is stated at the Treasury Department that the advisability of withholding from the public the statements heretofore given out through the press of the amount of bullion purchased and the prices paid for it is under consideration. Recently a change has been inaugurated in the manner of making the purchases public by withholding this statement until the day after each purchase is made. Whether the contemplated refusal will eventually occur has not been actually decided, but an advanced price of silver offered may have the effect of causing its enforcement. It is interesting to note that the silver bullion purchased yesterday was bought at prices offered by the department of persons who made the original offers at higher prices. At New York to-day commercial bar silver closed at 72% cents and Mexican dollars at 59%. At London bar silver closed at 38%d. Two hundred thousand ounces of silver were shipped to Europe, this morning, on the steamer New York.

Troubles Renewed in Nicaragua. WASHINGTON, July 15 .- The State Department has received advices from Minister Baker, at Managua, confirming the news that agrevolt has broken out again in Nicaragua, and that the President of the republic and his Minister of Foreign Affairs are held prisoners at Leon. There was no battle, but the minister regards the situation as critical. This was disagroeable news to the Navy Department, for it will require the Secretary to send a naval vessel to Nicaragua at a season when the climate is least endurable and fever prevails at many places. The only United States war vessel available on the west coast is the Alliance, at Callao, Peru. 18 will take her acout a week or ten days to make the trip after she receives her orders and takes her coal and stores aboard, Meanwhile, this last incident will have the effect of hastening the sailing of the Yorktown and Charleston from New York, for. although it will be several months before they can reach the Pacific, the necessity for strengthening the naval force there has been made very apparent.

Brazil Harassing Coffee Merchants, NEW YORK, July 15 .- The secretary of the Coffee Exchange has sent the following letter to Secretary Gresbam:

The Brazilian government, owning the telegraph line along the Brazilian coast, has prohibited all cipher dispatches from the United States, while allowing messages sent from Brazil to the United States. This places our mer-chants, especially the coffee trade of the United States, at a great disadvantage and a great expense. I respectfully submit to your consideration. in behalf and under the instruction of this exchange. the feasibility of inducing the Brazilian governmerchants in Brazil, correspondents of American merchants, to lodge with the proper government officials in Brazil their cable or cipher codes, and to permit recipients of messages to translate them in the presence and under the di-

General Notes. WASHINGTON, July 15.-The findings of the court of inquiry convened at Fort McKinny, Mont., to investigate certain alleged irregularities to the accounts of Capt. J. A. Hutton, in connection with the post canteen, have been received at the War Department. The court finds the irregularities due to carelessness rather than onlpability. Secretary Herbert to-day approved the findings of the court of inquiry in the case of Commander T. A. Lyons. The court was appointed to inquire into the circumstances of the running down of the Norwegian bark Speeranza by the Monongahels in the harbor of Funchal, Madeira, in January last. The court found that Commander Lyons was at fault in maneuvering hie vessel, but, in view of certain mitigating circumstances, recommended that no further action be taken.

The Growing Boy.

New York Sun. "It seems to me," said the father of a family, "that the growing boy is a sort of human telescope. He stretches out in the most wonderful manner, but I don't think you fully realize how much until he comes to try on his last season's clothes. I was reminded of this to-day, when my oldest boy, appearing in his last summer's trousers, appeared to be all feet and ankles. The mother of the growing girl lets out the tucks in her dresses. Would there were tucks in the boy's trousers, but there are none, and there is nothing to do but to buy new ones."

One of those connected with the Harpers' house said recently that at the last settlement Wallace was shown to have received nearly $140,000 to royalties for that ook. If that is so it is the largest sum ever earned by a romancer, at least by an American.
